About the Service

Young people achieving the Cumbrian Award will become eligible for a reduction of between 8 and 16 UCAS points needed for entry to the University of Cumbria. This is equivalent to a full grade point reduction in most cases. For example, a pupil achieving three A-levels at grades BBC could access a course which has an entry requirement of grades BBB. In order to benefit from the tariff reduction, Year 12 pupils will need to attend a Cumbrian Award Presentation Day at the university in the summer term.
